COVID-19 Childcare Agreement

By signing this document, I am confirming that all the points below are accurate / understood:

- No member of my household is showing any symptoms of Coronavirus (high temperature / persistent cough).
- If a child shows symptoms of coronavirus whilst in school, they will be isolated, and parents requested to collect them as soon as possible.
- I am classed as a critical keyworker.
- I have absolutely no alternative childcare available to me.
- This is a childcare facility and not education.
- Childcare will be provided on a much-reduced staffing level and may include adults from other schools.
- The government's requirement for social distancing will be maintained (children will be kept apart by at least 2m at all times)
- I will notify the school if children will not be in school on any day, if they had planned to do so, using the normal attendance procedures.
- Children will wear a new set of clean clothes every day.
- A packed lunch will be supplied for children each day (unless entitled to a Free School Meal).
- My childcare may have to take place at an alternative school setting in the future.
- I understand the risks associated with not isolating my child(ren) at this time.
